

A Good First Year

President Trump has made good on his promises to the American people. With almost the first year of his first term in the books, he's a keeper.

Of course the Liberals are still up in arms because the President is keeping his promises. We know of course had the Left won the 2016 election, promises would not be kept. Campaign promises after all are the currency to get votes by the Left. They never intend on really keeping them.

But Donald Trump is a man of integrity and he has kept his word. Our Senators and Congressmen on the otherhand have not kept their word. They lied to us, just as the Left has done. Just to get the votes so they can stay in office, stay in power and enrich themselves on our money.

In order to fulfill the President's agenda, he needs the majority of supporters in Congress. President Trump doesn't have this currently and fights even with his own party to accomplish the goals that will benefit all Americans.

Those who oppose the President come even from his own party. But they are the RINO establishment. And part of the vast and deep Washington DC swamp. The draining continues.

Other enemies of the President are the Liberal Left and the mainstream media which they control. It is hard to get your message out to the people when the media is in the hands of the Liberal Left and you don't champion the Liberal agenda. So keep Tweeting Mr. President. Keep us informed.

But our President marches on anyway. As his is a higher calling. He could have stayed a private citizen. Donating to both parties on issues that directly impacted his bottom line as a businessman. But he wanted a better future for his children and grand children, and the next generation of Americans.

And I salute you Mr. President. Keep up the good work, as we have 7 more years to go. And after that I pray we have another 8 years of a President Pence to follow your lead.
